

Airline Safety Report

In 2019, there was a record number of commercial flights. Over 38.9 million flights were performed with over 3.74 billion passengers transported

Despite the increase in the number of passengers and flights, the number of airline incidents has decreased over 22% since 2010.

From 2010 to 2019, there have been a total of 8089 fatalities from air travel in total. In the same time period, there have been 13.45 million fatalities from vehicles

Comparing Vehicle Fatalities with Airline Fatalities between 2010 and 2019

